OHIO

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3 .- The Republithe nation Tuesday, and elected Senator publican, had been elected governor by in 1916 gave Wilson 52,276; Hughes 54,678. Warren G. Harding president by one of about 10,000 majority. the greatest pluralities in the nation's history, continued to pile up majorities by the thousands in the senator's home State to-day for his colleagues.

Not a Republican candidate for State night indicated the possibility that the entire Ohlo delegation in the next Con-gress may be Republican. In the present Congress ther are eight Democrats and fourteen Republicans from Ohio. Harding's plurality over Governor by 12,192. James M. Cox passed the 300,000 mark late to-day and was continuing to speed upwards with approximately 1,000 pre-cincts yet to be heard from out of the 7,145 in the State. Returns from 6,101 pre-cincts gave Harding 956,082 and Cox 646,243. Former Governor Frank B. Willie' plurality was climbing toward the 300,000 mark in his race against W. A. Julian for the right to occupy the seat that will be vacated by Senator Harding next March 4th. Returns tabulated to-night from 5,297 precincts gave Willis an actual lead of 237.346. The vote was: Willis 794.544;

In the race for the governorship, former Mayor Harry L. Davis of Cleveland had gained a lead of more than 100,000 over State Auditor A. V. Donahey, returns from 5,828 precincts giving: Davis 846,448; Ratification of the Crabbe State prohibition enforcement act appeared to have carried.

PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.-Additional turns from Pennsylvania counties to-night make it sure that President-elect Warren G. Harding has the largest plurality ever given a candidate in the State. His sweeping majority continues to grow as the complete count comes in. Early to-night returns from 5,516 districts out of 7.219 gave the Ohio senator a plurality of 580,405 over Governor Cox.

The vote so far tabulated is as follows:

'Harding 972 287; Cox 391,882. If the same ratio is maintained in the unreported districts, Harding's plurality would exceed 800,000. continues to grow as further figures are received and is the highest given since the people of the State have been voting directly for United States senator. Returns from 5,373 districts give Penrose 478,082 plurality over John A. Farrell, his Democratic opponent. The figures are: Penrose 821,946; Farrell 343,914.

Figures so far indicate there will be only one Democrat in the congressional delegation of 36 to the next Congress from Pennsylvania.

MARYLAND

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 3.-Besides rolling up a majority of more than 50,000 for Harding and Coolidge yesterday, Mary land changed radically the personnel of its delegation in Congress.

Ovington E. WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 3.-Returns from 1261 precincts out of 1868 in West Virginia for President give Cox 143,129; Harding 192,680. For governor: Koonts. Democrat, 119,269; Montgomery, non-parof tisan, 54,333; Morgan, Republican, 162,147.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 3.-Ben Rosen bloom, Republican, of Wheeling, was elected to Congress in the first West Virginia district, according to practically complete returns complled late to-day.

The other five congressional districts West Virginia are now represented by Republicans, and on the face of incomplete returns from every district no change will be made in the political com-Isle plexion of the newly elected Congress-

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 3.-Complete returns from yesterday's election gave Senator Harding a plurality in New Hampshire of close to 30,000, Governor-elect Brown about 1,000 less and Senator Moses approximately 21,000.
